

To the foot of Belukha with pack horses (2023)

To visit at the foot of Belukha in itself is wonderful, and to go it through the Oroktoy path is a double gift. The main advantage of this path is that it passes along the high altitude, repeatedly opening Belukha from unusual and bewitching angles. Below are beautiful valleys, clouds are floating past.

In addition, this route provides access to Tekelyu waterfall - the highest waterfall in Altai, absolutely luxurious. There are rocks, slopes, lakes, valleys, passes, rivers. In a word, on this route there is everything that can be. The route includes the maximum possible number of beautiful places in 9 days. You don't have to get bored at all. In any weather. After such a route, the feeling that you were not in civilization for not 10 days, but eternity. All 9 days of the route you are accompanied by pack horses that carry food, tents and other equipment.

Ascent along the Kucherla River to the Kucherlinsky Lake. The Kucherla River (from Altai "Kudzhur-ly", which means "with saline soils"), formed by the confluence of two mountain streams, Myushtu- Ayry and Koni-Ayry, has an amazing milky- turquoise water. The total length of the river is about 50 km. It cuts a lot of ridges and moraines, beats against the gorges, forming an almost continuous chain of challenging rapids. The lake is 5220 m long, at 1790 m above sea level elevation, 900 m wide and 55 m deep. The Kucherla Valley has more than 40 tectonic, corrie and moraine lakes. The Kucherla Lake is the largest of them. It is closed by mountain ridges from east and west with loosened rocks up to 3,000 m high, narrow valley of the Kucherla from south and moraine deposits that create a dam from north. The lake is filled with ice, greenish-blue water.	Mode of travel: auto/on foot Distance: 84 km, 16 km Meals: Breakfast - Cafe, Lunch and dinner - cooked on fire Accommodation : Tents
